Welcome!

On behalf of the Ticonderoga Area Chamber of Commerce I would like to extend a heartfelt greeting and invitation to visit and experience the Ticonderoga Area located in the Adirondacks bordering both Lake George and Lake Champlain. The Chamber proudly serves the towns of Ticonderoga, Crown Point, Hague, Moriah, and Putnam, NY and is also affiliated with the Lake Champlain Region Visitors Center.

Whatever the season the area offers a wide variety of unsurpassed scenic beauty, rich history, arts and cultural opportunities and recreational activities.

I hope you find this directory and visitor's guide useful in planning your next trip to the Ticonderoga area in northern New York.

If you are an established business or looking for a new business opportunity, the Ticonderoga Area Chamber of Commerce also offers resources, information, and assistance as we encourage and promote further growth of the area.

For an area Business Directory, Calendar of Events, or general information please visit our website at www.ticonderogany.com, email chamberinfo@ticonderogany.com, Call 518-585-6619, like us on facebook or visit our office located in the heart of historic downtown Ticonderoga. A 24 Hour Self-Service information booth is also located at Moses Circle/Liberty Monument.

We look forward to seeing you during your next visit to the Ticonderoga Area.

Warmest Wishes,

Matthew Courtright
Executive Director

Ticonderoga:

Ticonderoga, located between Lake George and Lake Champlain within the Adirondack Park, is a destination for visitors who love the lakes, mountains, historic landmarks, rich history, arts and cultural opportunities as well as recreational activities.

Some of the major attractions include Fort Ticonderoga, Mount Defiance, Hancock House, Heritage Museum, Liberty Monument, Bicentennial Park and waterfalls, LaChute River Trail, Ticonderoga Public Beach, Ticonderoga Golf Course, art galleries as well as a variety of sports fields, hiking trails, fishing locations and boat launch sites on Lake George and Lake Champlain.

To the visitor, business, or resident, the area offers something for everyone. Ticonderoga is derived from a Native American word meaning “Land Between Two Waters”.

Crown Point:

A small town with country charm, Crown Point is situated along the shores of Lake Champlain within the Adirondack Park. Crown Point has one of the most ornate lighthouses in the United States and is rich in history with the Crown Point State Historic Site. Crown Point is also home to the Lake Champlain Region Visitor Center, the Champlain Bridge and Gunnison’s Orchard & Bakery.

Hague:

Hague is located in the northern part of Lake George in a beautiful and serene setting of the Adirondack Mountains. Hague has easy access to area historical sites, attractions, and abundant recreational opportunities. Attractions include access to Lake George at the Hague Public Beach and Park with boat launch as well as the Hague Historical Museum and Art Gallery, hiking trails and Silver Bay YMCA. Silver Bay is a hamlet within the town of Hague and is home to Silver Bay YMCA Conference Center.

Moriah:

Located within the Adirondack Mountains, Moriah borders Lake Champlain. It consists of five hamlets: Moriah Center, Mineville, Witherbee, Moriah Corners and the Village of Port Henry. Moriah has a very rich and versatile heritage including the discovery of iron ore. Set on a bluff above the lake, the village of Port Henry offers access to parks, campsites, beaches, recreational areas, the Cheney Mountain trail and the Iron Center Museum. Port Henry is home of the Champlain Bridge Arch and “Champ” the Lake Champlain Monster.

Putnam Station:

Putnam Station is a lake front community located south of Ticonderoga and borders both Lake George and Lake Champlain. Putnam’s recreational opportunities for visitors and residents are highlighted by its public beach at Gull Bay on Lake George and Billy-Bob’s Apple Orchard. Putnam also has hiking trails as part of the Gull Bay Preserve.

For more information on the above towns within the Ticonderoga Area visit www.ticonderogany.com or contact the Chamber office today!

The monument within the Park has the names of those from Crown Point area who died serving in the military during the Civil War. Stones are located around the monument which have names of those who died starting from the revolutionary war to those who have passed away serving our country today.

Hague:

Elephant Rock: Elephant Rock is located on Route 8/Graphite Mountain Road. This oddly shaped rock has been transformed by a touch of paint to look like an Elephant. The “old timers” believe that you need to beep as you drive by so the elephant doesn’t walk out in front of you.

Hague Historical Museum: Located at the Community Center on Route 8/Graphite Mountain Road, the museum displays include a timeline on the history of Hague beginning with America’s first graphite mines, as well as special exhibits.

Hague Public Beach, Park & Boat Launch: Located on Route 9N in the center of Hague. The park offers access to Lake George, a public beach, children's playground, a grassy area to rest and relax, a sandy beach, a boat launch as well as a pier for scenic views of Lake George. The beach is open 10 AM - 6 PM July 1st through Labor Day.

Jabe Pond Trail & Other Hiking Trails: Follow Route 9N south towards Silver Bay. Turn right onto Split Rock Road. There is a parking area near the Jabes Pond Trail Head. This hike will give you beautiful views of Jabe Pond and native flowers. Other Hiking Trails are available throughout the area.

Peggy's Point: This park which is maintained by the Lake George Land Conservancy includes 315 feet of lake shoreline, a popular spot for anglers and anyone who wishes to sit and enjoy a peaceful moment on the point. This property has a beautiful lawn with towering birch trees and space for families to play and picnic together

Rogers Rock Campsite, Hiking Trails, Day Use, Beach & Boat Launch: Rogers Rock Campsite is located on the border of the Town of Ticonderoga and Hague on NYS Route 9N and gives access to Lake George, 332 campsites, day use and picnic areas, sandy beach, boat launch and hiking trails.

Silver Bay YMCA: Silver Bay YMCA is a conference center located on over 700 acres along the shores of Lake George welcoming groups of all sizes from conferences, family reunions, and family vacations. Daily and weekly access to their facilities and activities is available including a sandy beach, kayaking, canoeing, archery, tennis, basketball, fitness center, craft shop, hiking trails, family programs, lectures, concerts and an Ice Cream Shop. A Gift Shop is located at Silver Bay.

The Gallery At Hague Creek: Surrounded by the Charm of a building erected in 1839, the Gallery features work of artists from the Hudson Valley and the lower Adirondack Region. Throughout the season it exhibits and hosts both locally and nationally recognized and emerging artists in a variety of media. The gallery is located on Graphite Mountain Road.

Moriah:

Belfry Mountain Fire Tower & Hiking Trail: This entire climb is all easy uphill hike, along an access road to the tower. The firetower is open so be sure to climb on up and check out the views. Slight views can be had from the ground floor if you don't like climbing the tower. The old mining community of Mineville, Witherbee and Moriah are directly below you and the large mounds of mine tailings can be seen in the distance. Lake Champlain and the Green Mountains of Vermont are far off in the distance.

Bulwagga Bay Beach: Located just off Route 22/9N Bulwagga Bay offers a playground, beach, pavilion, horseshoes and a basketball court.

Boat Launch & Port Henry Pier: The boat launch is located along Lake Champlain a short distance down the hill from the Port Henry

Business District. In addition there is a pier that offers a beautiful view of the lake and the Champlain Bridge as well as fishing access.

Champ Beach Park: Located along Lake Champlain the park has a sandy beach, children's playground, horseshoes, basketball court and beautiful views of Lake Champlain and the Champlain Bridge.

“Champ” The Lake Champlain Monster: Does Lake Champlain harbor a monster? Port Henry sure thinks so. Our resident monster, affectionately known as “Champ” has been sighted for as long as people have been in this part of the Adirondacks. Old stories of the Native American tribes that lived near Lake Champlain confirm that they believed a “horned serpent” lived in the lake. Modern sightings started in Bulwagga Bay, Port Henry in 1819. This remains an excellent place to launch a Champ search. A listing of Champ sightings can be seen in Port Henry.

Cheney Mountain Trail: A trail that leads to a summit overlooking and giving gorgeous views of Lake Champlain. Access is off Pelfershire Road in Port Henry. The trail is maintained by Champlain Area Trails.

LC&M Caboose: Built in 1946 at Fisher Hill Shop in Mineville, NY. The train is displayed next to the Amtrak stop in Port Henry. It is constructed from an Iron Ore Car and weighs 16 tons. The Lake Champlain and Moriah Railroad used the caboose on the main line from Mineville to Port Henry to haul Iron Ore.

Moriah Country Club & Golf Course: Located on Broad Street in Port Henry the Moriah golf course is a 9-hole course located up the hill from Port Henry's Business District.

Port Henry Walking Tour: Explore Port Henry's historic downtown and learn about Moriah's industrial legacy on A Walk Through History, a self-guided walking tour. The architectural walking tour brochure includes descriptions of 12 buildings in downtown Port Henry.

Roe Pond: A dedicated children's fishing pond. No anglers age 16 years and older are allowed to fish Roe Pond, pursuant to local law. Minimum fine $100.

Sherman Free Library: Located on Church Street in Port Henry. The library offers access to books, magazines, public computer services, WiFi and more.

The Iron Center: Railroad and mining history exhibits are presented by the Town of Moriah Historical Society in a restored carriage house at the former Witherbee-Sherman and Company mining headquarters. The museum documents the operations of the local iron ore mining industry, which flourished from 1820 to 1971, its impact on worker's lives, and the preparation, processing, and transport of iron ore from Lake Champlain to the world.

Town Park: Located between the town office and the Amtrak station. This grassy park is the site of a gazebo where summer concerts are held as well as the LC&M Caboose.

Putnam:

Billy Bob's Apple Orchard: Located on Lower Road in Putnam Station. Billy Bob's offers an array of delicious apples ready to go, pick your own orchard, homemade sweet treats, Billy Bob's attire, and an Annual Apple Fest with hay rides, pumpkin picking and more.

Gull Bay Public Beach & Boat Launch: Located on Gull Bay Road in Putnam the beach area offers a beautiful view of Lake George, swimming, a sandy beach, boat launch and a chance to relax in this quiet and serene setting.

Gull Bay Preserve: This woodland hillside property contains old logging roads and two wetland swamps. In autumn, significant numbers of migratory waterfowl rest in the wetland before their journey south to warmer climates. The western side of the property has a magnificent scenic vista of Lake George. The Lake George Land Conservancy has established two miles of hiking trails and hosts nature excursions on the property.

Adirondacks:

It is no surprise that the Adirondack Park is such an acclaimed vacation destination - it's a park unlike any other. The Adirondacks span 6 million acres; include over 2,000 miles of designated hiking trails, the highest peaks of New York and countless lakes, river and streams. With four beautiful and distinct seasons, the region offers infinite opportunities for adventure any time of the year.

Lake Champlain:

The Lake Champlain Region is celebrated for 400 years of history and one of the most striking skylines in the Eastern U.S. Often referred to as the 6th Great Lake, Lake Champlain stretches over 120 miles, boasts 600 miles of shoreline as well as 70 islands, Lake Champlain unites historic hamlets along the shore. The region offers scenic mountain hikes, biking on quiet country roads, championship golf courses and endless water recreation including fishing, boating, swimming, and kayaking. Visit the regions 18th century military forts at Ticonderoga and Crown Point, check out the area museums or just relax and wander down the charming streets.

Lake George:

Located in the southern part of the Adirondacks is approximately 32 miles long stretching from Lake George Village to Ticonderoga and nearly 3 miles wide at the widest point. Much of Lake George's Shoreline is unsettled and will remain that way due to conservation efforts. The Lake George Region offers access to recreational opportunities, scenic beauty and historic sites. Small communities surround the north end of the lake including Ticonderoga, Hague, and Putnam, NY.

Ice Fishing: Great fishing can be found even in the winter on Lake Champlain, Lake George and other area bodies of water. For information access points see boating section.

Mini Golf: Five Nations Golf located next to the Ticonderoga Country Club offers historically themed 18 hole mini golf course with beautiful views of Lord How Valley. A full service driving range is also located at Five Nations. (518-586-6838)

Northern Lake George Paddle and Pickle Ball: NLG offers a 2 court platform tennis facility with a wanning hut and 'viewing deck. Paddle Tennis is for players of all ages (908-244-7855).

Ice Skating: Ice Skating rinks are located in Ticonderoga and Moriah.

Relaxing: Do nothing, relax and enjoy the scenic beauty and calming effect of the area. That's why they invented the Adirondack Chair.

Sightseeing: The Ticonderoga Area offers an area of sightseeing throughout the Adirondacks, Lake Champlain and Lake George Region with beautiful views, drives and stops along the way.

Snowmobiling Trails: The Adirondack Region gives access to trail systems. Snowmobiling is a favorite Adirondack winter activity.

Swimming: The Ticonderoga Area offers access to swimming in Lake George, Lake Champlain and other area waters. Public beaches are located in Ticonderoga, Hague, Moriah and Putnam. See beach locations under each community listing.

Tour Boats: Lake George Steamboat Company in Lake George, NY offers a variety of cruises; sightseeing, lunch, brunch and dinner cruises on 3 large cruise ships. Carillon Boat Cruises at Fort Ticonderoga: The 60-foot, 49-passenger tour boat Carillon offers daily tours around the Ticonderoga Peninsula. In 90 minutes you can enjoy centuries of stories that floated across this ancient lake. Other boat tours are available within the Ticonderoga Area.

Walking/Running: Enjoy walking or running through the communities within the Ticonderoga Area. The LaChute River trail in Ticonderoga is a perfect location for a casual walk or for exercising. The LaChute River Trail runs through the Ticonderoga Bicentennial Park.

Water Sports: Tubing, water skiing, parasailing, and other water sports are available in the Ticonderoga Area.
