TICONDEROGA:

Ticonderoga, located between Lake George and Lake Champlain within the Adirondack Park, is a destination for visitors who love the lakes, mountains, historic landmarks, rich history, arts and cultural opportunities as well as recreational activities. Some of the major attractions include Fort Ticonderoga, Mount Defiance, Hancock House, Heritage Museum, Liberty Monument, Percy Thompson Bicentennial Park and waterfalls, LaChute River Trail, Star Trek Original Series Set Tour, Ticonderoga Public Beach, Ticonderoga Golf Course & Five Nations Mini-Golf/Driving Range, Ticonderoga Arts Gallery as well as a variety of sports fields, hiking trails, fishing locations and boat launch sites on Lake George and Lake Champlain. To the visitor, business, or resident, the area offers something for everyone. Ticonderoga is derived from a Native American word meaning “Land Between Two Waters”.

CROWN POINT:

A small town with country charm, Crown Point is situated along the shores of Lake Champlain within the Adirondack Park. Crown Point has one of the most ornate lighthouses in the United States and is rich in history including the Crown Point State Historic Site and Penfield Homestead Museum. Crown Point is also home to the Lake Champlain Bridge, Lake Champlain Region Visitor Center, Essex County Fish Hatchery, and Gunnison’s Orchard.

HAGUE:

Hague is located on the northern shores of Lake George, in a beautiful and serene setting of the Adirondack Mountains. Access to Lake George is the Hague Public Beach and Park, which includes a boat launch. The summer months offer weekly concerts in the park, motor boating, sailing, kayaking, canoeing, fishing and swimming. If you would like to spend some time off the lake there are numerous hiking trails with each season bringing spectacular views of the lake and mountains. Silver Bay is a hamlet within the town of Hague and is home to Silver Bay YMCA Conference Center. Hague is also home to the Adirondacks’ oldest continual operating general store. Hague is an exquisite unspoiled vacation spot not to be missed.

MORIAH:

Located within the Adirondack Mountains, Moriah borders Lake Champlain. It consists of five hamlets: Moriah Center, Mineville, Witherbee, Moriah Corners and Port Henry. Moriah has a very rich and versatile heritage including the discovery of iron ore. Set on a bluff above the lake, Port Henry offers access to parks, campsites, beaches, recreational areas, and the Iron Center Museum. Port Henry is home of the Champlain Bridge Arch, “Champ” the Lake Champlain Monster and hiking trails like the Cheney Mountain trail.

PUTNAM STATION:

Putnam Station is a lake front community located south of Ticonderoga which borders both Lake George and Lake Champlain. Putnam’s recreational opportunities for visitors and residents are highlighted by its public beach at Gull Bay on Lake George, pavilion and park on Lake Champlain and Billy Bob’s Apple Orchard. Putnam also has hiking trails as part of the Gull Bay Preserve.

Gull Bay Public Beach: Located on Gull Bay Road in Putnam the beach area offers a beautiful view of Lake George, swimming, a sandy beach, and a chance to relax in this quiet and serene setting.

Gull Bay Preserve: This woodland hillside property contains old logging roads and two wetland swamps. In autumn, significant numbers of migratory waterfowl rest in the wetland before their journey south to warmer climates. The western side of the property has a magnificent scenic vista of Lake George. The Lake George Land Conservancy has established two miles of hiking trails and hosts nature excursions on the property. Check out other local trails maintained by Champlain Area Trails, the Lake George Land Conservancy, and New York State. Hiking maps are available at the Chamber Office.

ADIRONDACKS:

It is no surprise that the Adirondack Park is such an acclaimed vacation destination - it's a park unlike any other. The Adirondacks span 6 million acres; include over 2,000 miles of designated hiking trails, the highest peaks of New York and countless lakes, rivers and streams. With four beautiful and distinct seasons, the region offers infinite opportunities for adventure any time of the year.

LAKE CHAMPLAIN:

The Lake Champlain Region is celebrated for 400 years of history and one of the most striking skylines in the Eastern U.S. Often referred to as the 6th Great Lake, Lake Champlain stretches over 120 miles, boasts 600 miles of shoreline as well as 70 islands. Lake Champlain unites historic hamlets along the shore. The region offers scenic mountain hikes, biking on quiet country roads, golf courses and endless water recreation including fishing, boating, swimming, and kayaking. Visit the region's 18th century military forts at Ticonderoga and Crown Point, check out the area museums or just relax and wander down the charming streets. Small Communities with Big Opportunities surround the south end of the lake including Ticonderoga, Hague, and Putnam, NY. Be sure to check out the Lake Champlain Bridge Heritage Area and complete the Quest Map to receive your commemorative Heritage Coin. Once you've answered all of the questions listed on the Quest Guide, return to the Lake Champlain Region Visitor Center next to the Champlain Bridge for your coin.

LAKE GEORGE:

Located in the southern part of the Adirondacks, Lake George is approximately 32 miles long stretching from Lake George Village to Ticonderoga and is nearly 3 miles wide at the widest point. Much of Lake George's shoreline is unsettled and will remain that way due to conservation efforts. The Lake George Region offers access to an abundance of recreational opportunities, scenic beauty and historic sites as well as endless water recreation including fishing, boating, swimming, and kayaking. Small Communities with Big Opportunities surround the north end of the lake including Ticonderoga, Hague, and Putnam, NY.

Recreational Activities

Biking: The Ticonderoga Area, Lake Champlain Region, and Lake George Region offer great biking routes through scenic country roads, quaint towns and villages, many with breathtaking views of the area. Adirondack Coast Bikeways offers 14 bicycle loops within the Lake Champlain Region.

Empire State Bike Trail: The 750-mile Empire State Trail showcases New York's special places, diverse history, and iconic landscapes. The Trail welcomes bicyclists and walkers of all ages and abilities to experience the Empire State's urban centers, village main streets, rural communities, and diverse history, from New York City through the Hudson River Valley, west to Buffalo along the Erie Canal, and north to the Champlain Valley and Adirondacks. The bike stop at the trailhead in Ticonderoga offers a bike station and easy access to main street businesses.

Birding: Birders do not want to miss the largest birding trail in North America along the Lake Champlain Basin on the Atlantic Flyway. This trail is a 300-mile highway-based trail which unifies and connects 88 birding sites along the Lake Champlain shoreline. The Crown Point Bird Conservation Area is part of the Crown Point State Historic Site.

Boating: The Ticonderoga Area offers boating, canoeing, and kayaking on Lake Champlain and Lake George as well as other area rivers, lakes, and ponds including the Lachute River. Public boat launches are located in Ticonderoga, Crown Point, Hague, and Moriah as well as other access points within the area and at State Campsites. Boating stickers are required. Designated non-motorized boat launch areas in Ticonderoga are located at Percy Thompson Bicentennial Park and Tin Pan Alley. Contact the Chamber for more information.

Peace of Mind

Because injuries and illness don't take a vacation, we have locations throughout the Adirondack Region offering the trusted, quality care that patients have come to expect from University of Vermont Health Network.

24-HOUR EMERGENCY CARE

Our skilled physicians and staff provide the care you need in our two local hospitals, 24/7:

- 101 Adirondack Drive, Ticonderoga, NY
- 75 Park Street, Elizabethtown, NY

PRIMARY CARE

Our health centers give you access to convenient, compassionate care and can often accommodate same day appointments:

- Ausable Forks • Crown Point • Elizabethtown
Wilmington • Westport • Willsboro

Get out there and explore. We're here for you and whatever may come your way.
