

2026 TACC Community Appreciation Awards Ceremony - Ballot

Award & Criteria	1st Choice	2nd Choice	3rd Choice
BUSINESS OF THE YEAR Think of businesses that lead by example with a positive and productive attitude, think local consistently, have a positive community impact, support as well as collaborate with other businesses and organizations, and communicates and coordinates regularly with the Chamber. This business should also sponsor/support Chamber events/programs, host or offer to host Chamber events, support other charities, and support community events. Being a TACC Member shows their commitment to fellow businesses, organizations, the community, and the future. The Business of the Year must be in good standing with the TACC.
COMMUNITY VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR Think of an individual that holds seats on committees/boards, has changed the community for the better, leads by example with a positive and productive attitude, supports the community, assists with different events, assists, and supports, organizations/businesses, supports charitable efforts, and exemplifies outstanding community service.
CHAMBER VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR Think of an individual (Chamber Volunteer) that has been involved with the Chamber in general, participates in or attends functions/events, assists with Chamber events/responsibilities, leads by example with a positive and productive attitude, and exemplifies outstanding service to TACC.
ORGANIZATION OF THE YEAR Think of community organizations that lead by example with a positive and productive attitude, think local consistently, have a positive community impact, support as well as collaborate with other businesses and organizations, and communicates and coordinates regularly with the Chamber. Think of a non-profit organization that consistently supports Chamber events, host or offer to host Chamber events, coordinates with or host charities, and support community events. Being a TACC Member also shows their commitment to fellow businesses, organizations, the community, and the future. The Organization of the Year must be in good standing with the TACC.
TACC APPRECIATION AWARD Think of an individual, business, organization, or committee that has been involved with and supports the Chamber or the community, attends, supports, or assists with community events, or have a significant economic impact on the community. Nominees should exemplify outstanding service to the Chamber or the community.

Please note that Business of the Year and Organization of the Year must be TACC Members.
Nomination Forms Are Due Back by Friday, October 2nd, 2026 at 9 AM. For a list of past award recipients contact the Chamber.